

Here I Am!

Legacy, Community and Tolerance

This topic links with our Legacy, Community and Tolerance drivers as we find out about ourselves, our families and the communities we belong to, learning and celebrating similarities and differences.

The Big Questions: what do you look like? Who is in your family?

The Big Question: where do you live? Where is your school?

Lines of enquiry:

- To learn that we are all different and unique.
- To learn about our feelings and to respect the feelings of others.
- To learn about our local community, environment and school.
- To learn about our own and our family's history.
- To learn about our bodies, what they can do and what we can do to look after them.
